- (j) the establishment and support, or aiding in the establishment or support of any other association formed for any of the basic objects of the Association;
- (k) the purchase or acquisition, and undertaking of all or any part of the property, assets, liabilities and engagements of any association with which the Association may at any time become amalgamated in accordance with the provisions of the Act and the rules of the Association;
- (l) the power to operate bank and/or building society accounts; and
- (m) the doing of all, such, other lawful things as are incidental., or conducive to the attainment of the basic objects of the Association or of any of the objects and purposes specified in the foregoing provisions of this sub-rule.

BECOMING A MEMBER

5. (1) A person who is nominated and approved for membership as provided in these rules is eligible to be a member of the Association on payment of the annual subscription prescribed in or fixed under these rules.
- (2) The term of membership begins with the receipt of annual subscription by the club member to the Treasurer and ceases at midnight on the day prior to the first club race the following year. (amended 2009)
- (3) A person who is not a member of the Association at the time of the incorporation of the Association shall not be admitted to membership unless they are nominated and their nomination approved as provided in sub-rule (3) of this rule.
- (4) A nomination of a person for membership of the Association -
 - (a) shall be made in writing, signed by two members of the Association;
 - (b) shall be accompanied by the written consent of the person nominated (which may be endorsed on the form of nomination);
 - (c) shall include the appropriate membership subscription; and
 - (d) shall be lodged with and approved by a member of the committee of management.
- (5) As soon as is practicable after the receipt and approval of a nomination, the nomination shall be referred to the Secretary.
- (6) The Secretary shall enter the new member's name in the register of members and shall advise the Committee at the following committee meeting.

MEMBERSHIP RESIGNATION

- (6) A member of the Association may, at any time, resign from the Association by delivering or by sending by post to the Secretary a written notice of resignation.
- (7) Upon receipt of a notice under sub-rule (6) of this rule, the Secretary shall remove the name of the member by whom the notice was given from the register of members, whereupon that member ceases to be a member of the Association.
- (8) A right, privilege or obligation of a person by virtue of their membership of the Association -
 - (a) is not capable of being transferred or transmitted to another person; and
 - (b) terminates upon the cessation of their membership, whether by death, resignation or otherwise.

A MEMBER DERIVING FINANCIAL BENEFIT FROM THE CLUB

- 6. (1) The income and property of the Association, however derived, shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects and purposes of the Association and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly by dividend, bonus or otherwise, to any member of the Association.
- (2) The Association shall not -
 - (a) appoint a person who is a member of the committee to any office in the gift of the Association to the holder of which there is payable any remuneration by way of salary, fees or allowances; or
 - (b) pay to any such person any remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth (other than the payment of out of pocket expenses).
- (3) Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this rule prevents the payment in good faith to a servant or member of the Association of
 - (a) remuneration in return for services actually rendered to the Association by the servant or member or for goods supplied to the Association by the servant or member in the ordinary course of business;
 - (b) interest at a rate not exceeding seven and one-quarter percent on moneys lent to the Association by the servant or member; or
 - (c) a reasonable and proper sum by way of rent for premises let to the Association by the servant or member.

ACCOUNTS TO BE KEPT

7. (1) True accounts shall be kept -
- (a) of all sums of money received and expended by the Association and the matter in respect of which the receipt or expenditure takes place; and
 - (b) of the property, credits, and liabilities of the Association, and subject to any reasonable restrictions as to time and manner of inspecting them that may be imposed by the Association for the time being, those accounts shall be open to the inspection of the members of the Association.

- (2) The Treasurer of the Association shall faithfully keep all general records, accounting books and records of receipts and expenditure connected with the operations and business of the Association in such form and manner as the committee may direct.
- (3) The accounts, books and records referred to in sub-rules (1) and (2) of this rule shall be kept at the Association's office or at such other place as the committee may decide.
8. (1) The Treasurer of the Association shall, on behalf of the Association receive all moneys paid to the Association and forthwith after the receipt thereof issue official receipts therefore.
- (2) The committee shall cause to be opened with such bank, building society or approved financial institution as the committee selects a banking account in the name of the Association into which all moneys received shall be paid by the Treasurer as soon as possible after receipt thereof.
- (3) The committee may receive from the Association's bank or bankers for the time being the cheques drawn by the Association, on any of its accounts with the bank or bankers and may release and indemnify the bank or bankers from and against all claims, actions, suits or demands that may be brought against the bank or bankers arising directly or indirectly out of those cheques or the surrender thereof to the Association.

NO SUM EXCEEDING $10 TO BE PAID IN CASH

- (4) Except with the authority of the committee, no payment of a sum exceeding Ten dollars shall be made from the funds of the Association otherwise than by cheque drawn on the Association's bank account, but the committee may provide the Treasurer with a sum to meet urgent expenditure, subject to the observance of such conditions in relation to the use and expenditure thereof as the committee may impose.

- (5) No cheques shall be drawn on the Association's bank account except for the payment of expenditure that has been authorised by the committee.
- (6) All cheques, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments shall be signed by the Treasurer and by such other member or members of the committee as the committee may nominate for that purpose.

APPOINTMENT OF AUDITOR AT AGM

9. (1) At each annual general meeting of the Association, the members present shall appoint a person as the auditor of the Association.
- (2) A person so appointed shall hold office until the annual general meeting next after that at which they are appointed, and are eligible for re-appointment.
- (3) The first auditor of the Association may be appointed by the committee before the first annual general meeting and, if so appointed, shall hold office until the first annual general meeting, unless previously removed by a resolution of the members at a general meeting, in which case the members at the meeting may appoint an auditor to act until the first annual general meeting.
- (4) If an appointment is not made at an annual general meeting, the committee shall appoint an auditor of the Association for the then current financial year of the Association.
- (5) Except as provided in sub-rule (3) of this rule, the auditor may only be removed from office by special resolution.
- (6) If a casual vacancy occurs in the office of auditor during the course of a financial year of the Association, the committee may appoint a person as the auditor and the person so appointed shall hold office until the next succeeding annual general meeting.

ROLE OF AUDITOR

10. (1) Once at least in each financial year of the Association, the accounts of the Association shall be examined by the auditor.
- (2) The auditor shall certify as to the correctness of the accounts of the Association and shall report thereon to the members present at the annual general meeting.
- (3) In their report, and in certifying to the accounts, the auditor shall state -
 - (a) whether they have obtained the information required by them;
 - (b) whether, in their opinion, the accounts are properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the financial position of the Association according to the information at their disposal and the explanations given to them and as shown by the books of the Association; and
 - (c) whether the rules relating to the administration of the funds of the Association have been observed.
- (4) The Treasurer of the Association shall cause to be delivered to the auditor a list of all accounts, books and records of the Association.
- (5) The auditor
 - (a) has a right of access to the accounts, books, records, vouchers and documents of the Association;
 - (b) may require from the servants of the Association such information and explanations as may be necessary for the performance of their duties as auditor;
 - (c) may employ persons to assist them in investigating the accounts of the Association; and
 - (d) may, in relation to the accounts of the Association, examine any member of the committee or any servant of the Association.

THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

11. (1) The Association shall, in each year, hold an annual general meeting.
- (2) The annual general meeting shall be held on such day (being not later than three months after the close of the financial year of the Association) as the Committee may determine.
- (3) The annual general meeting shall be in addition to any other general meetings that may be held in the same year.
- (4) The annual general meeting shall be specified as such in the notice convening it.
- (5) The ordinary business of the annual general meeting shall be
 - (a) to confirm the minutes of the last preceding annual general meeting and of any general meeting held since that meeting;
 - (b) to receive from the Committee, auditor, and servants of the Association reports upon the transactions of the Association during the last preceding financial year;
 - (c) to elect the officers of the Association and the ordinary committee members;
 - (d) to elect the handicapper and publicity officer; (amended 2009)
 - (e) to appoint the auditor and determine their remuneration; and
 - (f) to determine the remuneration of servants of the Association.
- (6) The annual general meeting may transact special business of which notice is given in accordance with these rules.
- (7) All general meetings other than the annual general meeting shall be called special general meetings.

SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS

12. (1) The Committee may, whenever it thinks fit, convene a special general meeting of the Association.
- (2) The Committee shall, on the requisition in writing of not less than ten members, convene a special general meeting of the Association.
- (3) A requisition for a special general meeting shall state the objects of the meeting and shall be signed by the requisitionists and deposited at the office of the Association and may consist of several documents in the like form, each signed by one or more of the requisitionists.
- (4) If the Committee does not cause a special general meeting to be held within twenty-one days from the date on which a requisition therefore is deposited at the office of the Association, the requisitionists, or any of them, may convene the meeting; but any meeting so convened shall not be held after three months from the date of deposit of the requisition.
- (5) A special general meeting convened by requisitionists in pursuance of these rules shall be convened in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which those meetings are convened by the Committee, and all reasonable expenses incurred in convening the meeting shall be refunded by the Association to the persons incurring them.

PUBLISHING NEWSPAPER NOTICE FOURTEEN DAYS PRIOR FOR ALL GENERAL MEETINGS

13. The Committee of the Association shall, at least fourteen days before the date fixed for holding a general meeting of the Association cause to be inserted in at least one newspaper published in this state an advertisement specifying the place, day and the time for the holding of the meeting, and the nature of the business to be transacted thereat.
14. (1) All business that is transacted at special general meetings and all business that is transacted at the annual general meeting, with the exception of that specially referred to in these rules as being the ordinary business of the annual general meeting, shall be deemed to be special business.

GENERAL MEETING QUORUM OF TEN MEMBERS

- (2) No item of business shall be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members entitled under these rules to vote is present during the time when the meeting is considering that item.
- (3) Ten members personally present (being members entitled under these rules to vote thereat) constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a general meeting.

DISSOLVING A GENERAL MEETING THROUGH LACK OF QUORUM

- (4) If within thirty minutes after the appointed time for the commencement of a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; and in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and (unless another place is specified by the chairperson at the time of the adjournment or by written notice to members given before the day to which the meeting is adjourned) at the same place, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within one hour after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.

CHAIRING A GENERAL MEETING

15. (1) The President or in their absence, a Vice-President, shall preside as chairperson at every general meeting of the Association.
- (2) If the President and the Vice-Presidents are absent from the general meeting, the members present shall elect one of their number to preside as chairperson thereat.

ADJOURNING A GENERAL MEETING

16. (1) The chairperson of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.
- (2) Where a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, the like notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of the original meeting.
- (3) Except as provided in the foregoing provisions of this rule, it is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

VOTING AT A GENERAL MEETING

17. A question arising at a general meeting of the Association shall be determined on a show of hands and unless before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried unanimously, or carried by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Association is evidence of the fact, without proof of, the number-or proportion of votes recorded in favour of, or against that resolution.
18. (1) Upon any question arising at a general meeting of the Association, a member has one vote only.
- (2) All votes shall be given personally (no proxy votes).
- (3) In the case of an equality of voting on a question, the chairperson of the meeting is entitled to exercise a second or casting vote.

CHAIRPERSON DECIDES VOTING METHOD

19. If at a meeting a poll of any question is demanded it shall be taken at that meeting in such manner as the chairperson may direct and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting on that question.
20. A poll that is demanded on the election of a chairperson, or on the question of adjournment, shall be taken forthwith and a poll that is demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time before the close of the meeting as the chairperson may direct.

ROLE OF THE COMMITTEE

21. (1) The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a committee of management constituted as provided in rule 23.
 - (2) The committee -
 - (a) shall control and manage the business and affairs of the Association;
 - (b) may, subject to these rules, exercise all such powers and functions as may be exercised by the Association, other than those powers and functions that are required by these rules to be exercised by general meeting of members of the Association ; and
 - (c) subject to the Act and these rules, has power to perform all such acts and things as appear to the committee to be essential for the proper management of the business and affairs of the Association;
 - (d) has the power to nominate members as delegates and for other positions to represent the Association in fulfilling the, objects of the Association.

OFFICERS OF THE CLUB

22. (1) The officers of the Association shall be -
- (a) a President; (b) two Vice-Presidents; (c) a Treasurer; (d) a Secretary.
- (2) Each officer of the Association shall hold office until the annual general meeting next after the date of their election but is eligible for re-election.
- (3) In the event of a casual vacancy in any office mentioned in sub-rule (1) of this rule, the committee may appoint one of its members to the vacant office, and the member so appointed may continue in office up to and including the conclusion of the annual general meeting next following the date of their appointment.
23. (1) The committee shall consist of
- (a) the officers of the Association; and
 - (b) Publicity Officer(amended 1998); and
 - (c) Handicapper(amended 1998); and
 - (d) 6 ordinary committee members
- all of whom shall be elected at the annual general meeting of the Association.
- (2) Each ordinary committee member shall, subject to these rules, hold office until the second annual general meeting after the date of their election with half the positions becoming vacant at each annual general meeting. All ordinary committee members are eligible for re-election.
- (3) In the event of a casual vacancy occurring in the office of an ordinary committee member, the committee may appoint a member of the Association to fill the vacancy and the member so appointed shall hold office subject to these rules for the remainder of the term of office of their predecessor.

NOMINATION TO THE COMMITTEE

24. (1) Nominations of candidates for election as officers of the Association, ordinary committee members, handicapper or publicity officer are to be -
(amended 2009)
- (a) made in writing signed by two members of the Association and accompanied by the written consent of the candidate (which may be endorsed on the nomination form); and
 - (b) shall be delivered to the Public Officer of the Association at least 10 days before the date fixed for the holding of the Annual General Meeting. (Amended 1998)
- (2) If insufficient nominations are received to fill all vacancies on the Committee -
- (a) the candidates nominated are taken to be elected, and
 - (b) further nominations are to be received at the Annual General Meeting. (Amended 1998)
- (3) If the number of nominations received is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the persons nominated are taken to be elected.
(Amended 1998)
- (4) the ballot for the election of officers and ordinary committee members shall be conducted at the annual general meeting in such usual and proper manner as the committee may direct.

HOW A COMMITTEE OFFICE BECOMES VACANT

25. For the purposes of these rules, the office of an officer of the Association or of an ordinary committee member becomes vacant if the officer or committee member -
- (a) dies;
 - (b) becomes bankrupt or applies to take or takes advantage of any law relating to bankrupt or insolvent debtors or compounds with their creditors, or makes any assignment of their estate for their benefit;
 - (c) becomes of unsound mind;
 - (d) resigns their office by writing under their hand addressed to the committee;
 - (e) ceases to be resident in the State;
 - (f) fails, without leave granted by the committee, to attend three consecutive meetings of the committee;
 - (g) ceases to be a member of the Association; or
 - (h) fails to pay all arrears of subscription due by them within fourteen days after they have received a notice in writing signed by the Secretary stating that they have ceased to be a financial member of the Association.

FREQUENCY OF COMMITTEE MEETINGS

26. (1) The committee shall meet at least once each month at such place and at such times as the committee may determine.
- (2) Special meetings of the committee may be convened by the President or any five of its members.
- (3) Notice shall be given to members of the committee of any special meeting, specifying the general nature of the business to be transacted and no other business shall be transacted at such a meeting.

QUORUM FOR COMMITTEE MEETINGS IS FOUR

- (4) Any four members of the committee constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a meeting of the committee.
- (5) No business shall be transacted unless a quorum is present and if within half an hour of the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same place and at the same hour of the same day in the following week unless the meeting was a special meeting, in which case it lapses.
- (6) At meetings of the committee -
- (a) the President or, in their absence, a Vice-President; or
 - (b) if the President and the Vice-Presidents are absent, such one of the remaining members of the committee as may be chosen by the members present, shall preside.
- (7) Questions arising at meetings of the committee or of any sub-committee appointed by the committee shall be determined on a show of hands or, if demanded by a member, by a poll taken in such manner as the person presiding at the meeting may determine.
- (8) Each member present at a meeting of the committee or of any sub-committee appointed by the committee (including the person presiding at the meeting) is entitled to one vote and, in the event of an equality of votes on any question, the person presiding may exercise a second, or casting vote.
- (9) Each member of the Committee shall be advised by a member of the Executive Committee of the dates of all Committee meetings. (amended 2009).
27. (1) A member of the committee who is interested in any contract or arrangement made or proposed to be made with the Association shall disclose their interest at the first meeting of the committee at which the contract or arrangement is first taken into consideration if their interest then exists, or, in any other case, at the first meeting of the committee after the acquisition of their interest.

- (2) If a member of the committee becomes interested in a contract or arrangement after it is made or entered into they shall disclose their interest at the first meeting of the committee after they become so interested.
- (3) No member of the committee shall vote as a member of the committee in respect of any contract or arrangement in which they are interested and if they do so vote their vote shall not be counted.

APPOINTMENT OF SUB COMMITTEES

28. (1) The committee may at any time appoint a sub-committee from the committee as it may think fit and shall prescribe the powers and functions thereof.
- (2) The committee may co-opt as members of a sub-committee such persons as it thinks fit, whether or not these persons are members of the Association but a person so co-opted is not entitled to vote.
- (3) a majority of appointed members of a sub-committee constitute a quorum at a meeting of the sub-committee.
- (4) A sub-committee shall determine its own time and place of meetings in order to resolve its business in the time allotted to it by the committee.
- (5) The President, the Vice-Presidents, the Treasurer, the Secretary and the Public Officer if not one and the same person, constitute an Executive Committee which may issue instructions to the servants of the Association in matters of urgency connected with the management of the affairs of the Association during the intervals between meetings of the committee and where any such instructions are issued shall report thereon to the next meeting of the committee.

PAYMENT OF ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTION

29. (1) The amount of annual subscription of members of the Association is to be set at the Annual General Meeting, upon recommendation of the Committee (amended 1998).
- (2) The annual subscription of a member is due and payable on or before the date on which the member exercises their rights as a member of the Association (original sub-rule 2 repealed then amended 1998).
- (3) No person shall be permitted to participate in an event of the Association, as a competitor unless their subscription has been paid for the year of participation, and all membership arrears have been paid (amended 1998).

THE CLUB'S FINANCIAL YEAR

30. The financial year of the Association is the period 1st November to 31st October next following (amended 1998 and 2009).

SUSPENSION AND/OR EXPULSION OF MEMBERS

31. (1) To protect the image and reputation of the Association, the Committee may from time to time establish codes of conduct and/or disciplinary procedures. Any such codes or procedures established by the Committee will be made available for inspection by members.
- (2) If the conduct of a member infringes the code of conduct in place at that time or, in the opinion of the committee, the member has acted with conduct detrimental to the interests of the Association, the Secretary or other nominated committee member, acting on behalf of the Committee, will have the power to serve notice upon that member either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to the member at their usual or last known place of abode, stating that the member has breached the code of conduct and give that member details of the next occurring Ordinary Committee Meeting to allow the member to have a reasonable opportunity to be heard in respect of the breach of the code of conduct if they so desire.
- (3) When considering any serious breach of the code of conduct and after hearing the member in respect of that breach, the remaining Committee other than the Secretary or that committee member who served notice, will then have the power to:
- 3.1 caution and/or reprimand the member;
 - 3.2 serve notice to suspend such member from club privileges for any period not exceeding six months; or
 - 3.3 request such member to resign his or her membership and if such member does not resign within 7 days thereof, serve notice to expel the member from the Association.
- (4) A member on whom a notice under sub-rule (3.1) of this rule is served may not appeal against a committee reprimand or caution.
- (5) A member on whom a notice under sub-rule (3.2 and 3.3) of this rule is served may appeal against the suspension or expulsion (hereafter defined as the penalty) to a Special General Meeting by delivering or sending by post to the Secretary of the Association, within fourteen days after the service of that notice, a requisition in writing demanding the convening of such a meeting for the purpose of hearing their appeal.
- (6) Upon receipt of a requisition under sub-rule (5) of this rule, the Secretary shall forthwith notify the committee of its receipt and the committee shall thereupon cause a Special General Meeting of members to be held within twenty-one days after the date on which the requisition is received by the Secretary.
- (7) At a special general meeting convened for the purpose of this rule
- 7.1 no business other than the question of the penalty shall be transacted;
 - 7.2 the committee may place before the meeting details of the grounds of the penalty and the committee's reasons for the penalty;
 - 7.3 the member shall be given an opportunity to be heard; and
 - 7.4 the members present shall vote by secret ballot on the question whether the penalty should be lifted or applied.
- (8) If at the Special General Meeting a majority of the members present vote in favour of the lifting of the penalty, the penalty shall be deemed to have been lifted and the member is entitled to continue their membership of the Association.

(9) If at the Special General Meeting a majority of the members present vote in favour of the confirmation of the penalty, the penalty takes effect, and the member ceases to be a member of the Association without entitlement to refund to registration monies paid.

(10) Persons expelled from the Association will not be eligible to reapply for membership at any time, except with the consent of the Committee.
